I Give Up

Stellar Kart

I am overrated
One of the future faded
Who bought into the scamAll I thought was something
Still adds up to nothing
So everything I amI give up, Im laying it down
Ive had enough of living without You
Letting go of what I was
So long, goodbye, goIf Im being honest
How could You have wanted
This heart so defective?But what it all comes down to
When my world revolves around You
I begin to liveI give up, Im laying it down
Ive had enough of living without You
Im letting go of what I was
So long, goodbyeAnd I surrender
Raising my white flag
Im not holding back
Everything is Yours
Everything is YoursI give up, Im laying it down
Ive had enough of living without You
Im letting go of what I was
So long, goodbyeI give up, Im laying it down
Ive had enough of living without You
Im letting go of what I was
So long, goodbye, goGo
