Trophy Wife

In this cold paradise
There's too many places to hide
How could you not know?I'm too tired to fight
Through the labyrinth of your mind
How could you not know?And it's true
It could ruin everything if I gave you the benefit.
And it's true
It could become anything if I gave you the benefit.All the thorns of the fall
Won't light these corridors
How could you not know?How could I not see
What could you not show?
If you won't tell
Then how can I know?And it's true
It could ruin everything if I gave you the benefit.
And it's true
It could become anything if I gave you the benefit.And it's true
It could ruin everything if I gave you the benefit.
And it's true
It could become anything if I gave you the benefit.I try
I need to remember
I want this descended.
I try
But I can't pretend that
This hasn't descended.If you won't tell then how can I know?And it's true
It could ruin everything if I gave you the benefit.
And it's true
It could become anything if I gave you the benefit.And it's true (In this cold paradise)
It could ruin everything if I gave you the benefit.
And it's true (I'm too tired to fight)
It could become anything if I gave you the benefit.
