Old Friends

Chuck Prophet

Let's talk about old friends
Let's talk about old friends
Let's talk about anything
What was really going on
Let's talk about old friendsLet's talk about heroes
Let's talk about heroes
Strong men, wise men
Some of the even known
Let's talk about heroesSomebody told a lie
Tears fall down, tears fall downSomebody hurt you
Somebody hurt you
Go on and sit with
There's no reason to be found
Somebody hurt youLet's talk about Sharon
Let's talk about Sharon
That I know some things
She wishes I didn't know
Oh, let's talk about SharonOoh, somebody told a lie
Tears fall down, tears fall downLet's talk about old friends
Let's talk about heroes
Let's talk about Sharon
Let's talk about old friends
