

Satan's Butterfly Ball

Boy George

Look at you you're insecure
Running down the street
Screaming for attention
Jokers lips and padded hips Everybody's laughing
But you don't care
You're sick and you're twisted
Irreverent, so beautiful Look at me don't stare
I'm already out there
Goodbye butterfly
Goodbye satan's child Ah look at you you've got no shame
Enemas, blood, cocaine
Caviar and piss
Disco monster terrorist Hanging in the tate with
Turner and van gogh
Tell me pretty fat boy
Is there something you don't show Look at me don't stare
I'm already out there
Goodbye butterfly
Goodbye satan's child We love the big girls
With tattoos on their wrist
Sweet toys with lost eyes
And big red lips Give me sadness and badness
Don't ever bring me round
Elevator going up
Reality is a come down Goodbye butterfly
Goodbye satan's child
Goodbye
