Drinking With Dolly

Stephanie Quayle

Sometimes I think I was born too late came into the world in the wrong decade I swear if I could I'd go back to the good ol' days buy me a '69 cadillac a Coke in a bottle and a new 8 track and sing every word of Harper Valley PTAoh oh if I could hit rewindI'd go drinking with Dolly after the Opry
pour one for Tammy too
put on my rhinestones
paint up my nails
kick up my dancing shoes
hey there Loretta
put a quarter in the jukebox we'll sing along with you and talk about men cuz that's what women doshare a few secrets and a cigarette say a few things that we might regret tell it like it is 3 chords and the cold hard truth i bet they'd have a little advice to share how to tame my men and tack up my hair cuz you might as well look good while you're out paying your duesoh oh if I could turn back time chorusoh oh I bet we'd have a real good timedrinking with Dolly
