Gay Dad

I started feeling blue back in 1972
barefoot in the street
I had patches on my jeansand high up in the hills they were nodding out on pills and booze a odawful sad affair?
and the lights were there to thrill youmy oh my we live from time to time and day by day
it the modern way
look at me I speeding through self obsessive
just like you
we can smile
oh yeah we can smile1984 and school was out for summer I was hot for teacher well you should have seen our double featurestarted feeling fine in the winter of 1989 such an underrated year but it gone gone gonemy oh my
and day to day it the only way I know
a self obsessive just like you we can dance
we can dance the days away1999 it the end of modern time there panic in your eyes so if you can get muscles then you better get yourself a tan and be a real man cos the heroes that you worshipped are all gone gone gonemy oh my

self obsessed I just like you
we can dance
we can dance the night away
