Shame

Racey

Shame you ran away from meShame for two timing on meShame you started fooling aroundI said: woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.
I said you
you never held it right
You got it all wrong and we started to fight
You
you put the blame on meI said: woh woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.She was a first class ticket to ride Went off the rails love started to slide.
Slippin' and a slidin' all over the track Pushed me to the limit
now she can't go back.
No
I won't take no more
I got your hat and I'll show you to the door.
You better leave cause I can't take no moreI said: woh woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.
I said you
you never held it right
Got it all wrong but you think you got it rightYou are all trouble and woe
I said: woh woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.Sweet little raver had a ticket to ride Took me on a half way I was burning inside.
She should touch me like no one else canThis sweet little raver hit me right in the hand.
Shame it had to happen this wayShame for all the things you had to sayShame for letting me goI said: woh woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.
Shame you ran away from meShame for two timing on meShame you started fooling aroundI said: woh woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.
I said: you
you never handled it right
You got it all wrong and we started fo fight.
You
you put the blame on me
I said: woh woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.I said you
you never handled it right
