Where Are You Now?

Michelle Branch

Maybe I'll be better on my own
Nobody ever seems to understand me
It's easier for me to be alone
Until a piece of me that feels so empty
I've been all over the world
I've seen a million different places
But through the crowds and all the faces
I'm still out there looking for you
Where are you now?
I'm trying to get back
With never ever knowing at all
What is the chance
Of finding you out there
Until I have to wait forever
I write about the things I'll never known
And I find a moment to slow down
Makes me think I'll never have the chance
To figure out, to figure out
What it's all about, what it's all about
So tell me, tell me

What it's all about
Cause
Where are you now?
I'm trying to get by
With never ever knowing at all
What is the chance
Of finding you out there
Until I have to wait forever
Where are you now?
I'm trying to get by
With never ever knowing at all
And I still don't know
Where are you now?
I'm trying to get by
With never ever knowing at all
What is the chance?
Of finding you out there
Until I have to wait

Until I have to wait forever
