I Do But I Don't

Tim McGraw

You always come back when I'm at my weakest
When I'm fool enough to let you in Sayin' how this time around is different
Askin' if I want to try againI do but I don't
I want to but I won't
I am but I ain't
I could but I just can'tIt feels right but it's wrong
And I've hurt way too long
So when you ask me if I know what I want
I do but I don'tWhat resistance I have left within me
I lose each time you're holding me this close
With every bitter sweet kiss, girl, you tempt me
Asking if I want to let you goI do but I don't
I want to but I won't
I am but I ain't
I could but I just can'tIt feels right but it's wrong
And I've hurt way too long
When you ask me if I know what I want
I do but I don'tSo don't ask me if I know what I want
I do but I don't
