Emotionally Yours

Jimmy LaFave

Come baby, find me
Come baby, remind me
From where I once begun
Come baby show me
Show me that you really know me
Tell me you are the one
I could be learning
Baby you could be yearning
To see behind closed doors
And I will always be
Emotionally yoursCome baby, rock me
Come baby, won't you lock me
Into the shadows of your heart
Come baby, teach me
Come baby, won't you reach me
Let's let our music start
I could be dreaming
But baby, I keep believing
You're the one I've been praying for
And I will always be
Emotionally yoursIt's like my whole life never happened
Every time I see you
It's like I never even had a thought
I know my dream it might be crazy
But it's the only one
Only one I've gotCome baby, wake me
Come baby, won't you shake me
I would be so satisfied
Come baby, hold me
Come baby, won't you please help me
My arms, they are open so wide
Honey, I could be unraveling
Wherever I may be traveling
Even on this distant shore
But I will always be
Emotionally yours
