Unstoppable (feat. Jordan Feliz)

Matty Mullins

We're living in a broken world
Sometimes I feel like love is on strike
We're so blinded by the hurt
When the answer's right in front of our eyes
When will we learn?You can't push it out
Can't shut it down
When we look around, denying it is impossible
Through the night
In the darkest times
I believe his light still shines
This love is unstoppable
This love is unstoppableThey're saying that we're too far gone
But I believe that we will see
The promise of unfailing love
A revolution led by one
You can't push it out
Can't shut it down
When we look around, denying it is impossible
Through the night
In the darkest times
I believe his light still shines
This love is unstoppable
This love is unstoppableLove unstoppable
Anything is possible
I want the world to know
Love unstoppable
Anything is possible
I want the world to know
Love unstoppable
Anything is possible
We want the world to know
You can't push it out
Can't shut it down
When we look around, denying it is impossible
Through the night
In the darkest times
I believe his light still shines
This love is unstoppable, unstoppable
His love is unstoppable, yeah unstoppable

Your love is unstoppable
