East Coast Girl

Cayucas

Aahhh...
Hey! Hey!
O o-oh o-oh
Hey! Hey!
O o-oh o-oh-oh
Hey! Hey!
O o-oh o-oh
Hey! Hey!
O o-oh o-oh
Oh oh oh oh oh
Ohhhh...Walked from the subway down to the train
Brought your umbrellas so just in case it rains
Goodbye Chicago, I'll see you soon
Gone from November, I won't be back 'til June
You kept your secrets girl and I told you lies
No hiding places left for me to hide
We rode our bikes down to old McKinley Park
... shows in the barAahhh...
Said you moved to town about a week ago
Job of fourteen hours from the go
Studied english literature ... foreign politics
So for now, you were going back and forthLate out of Oakwood Montgomery
There's someone singing about ...
Built in the winter of 1843
Pictures of ...I just want to take a taxi out of the city before you fall asleep
Ignore the bums and ... asking for money
I've got to go, I've got to go
Aahhh...
Said you moved to town about a week ago
Job of fourteen hours from the go
Studied english literature ... foreign politics
So for now, you were going back and forthThe story of an East Coast girl
Warm in her winter clothes waiting for the sun to finally go down
Oh she's wondering what happened to that California sunshine she used to know
She used to knowHey! Hey!
O o-oh o-oh
Hey! Hey!
O o-oh o-oh-oh
Hey! Hey!

O o-oh o-oh
Hey! Hey!
O o-oh o-oh
