I Know Where I'm Going

Sugar Stems

A billion miles, under the sea
I'm in a private submarine
That nobody else can see
Where no one can bother meWatch the world, the secret eyes, and my TV, and Satellite
The world out there can pass me by,
Just as long as it leaves me aloneCause I know where I'm going, I know where...A million miles, the spider webs, they're in my hair
They're in my head
Before I know, I hear it call
The universe is spinning
Before I know it's been 10 years
It's in my bed, and in my mirror
I used to see myself, But now I just see somebody elseBut I know where I'm going, But I know where i'm going,
I know where I'm going, I know where, where....A biilion miles, in outer space now I'm in a private aeroplane,
If I come back down tonight, will I burn up in the atmosphere?
Watch the world, the secret eyes
They watch me lighting up the sky
The world lit up and passed me by
You think I don't know where I'm going?But I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going, I know where.....where...
