Coming for You

Von Grey

Another morning
Another sunrise
Get up and go
Always moving
Go faster never slowCause youre running, running,running
What you gonna do
Cause theyre coming, coming, coming
Coming for you
Dont slip on the morning dew
Theyll catch up to you
Cause youre running, running, running
What you gonna doYou can cheat and run
You can lie but you cant hide
Noooo
Theyre gonna find you
Theyre gonna catch you give them timeCause youre running, running, running
What you gonna do
Cause theyre coming, coming, coming
Coming for you
Dont slip on the morning dew
Theyll catch up to you
Cause youre running, running, running
What you gonna doGet on your knees and beg for mercy
Your fate is in the hands
Of this vengeful clergy
Are you worthy
Beg for mercyCause youre running, running, running
What you gonna do
Cause theyre coming, coming, coming
Coming for you
Dont slip on the morning dew
Theyll catch up to you
Cause youre running, running, running
What you gonna doCause youre running, running, running
What you gonna do
Cause theyre coming, coming, coming
Coming for you
