Saints Of Grey

Crossbreed

All my life, I remember the sight of you
The nights and nights I go back, and it burns
All my life I remember the sight of you
It burns and burns and for what?
They say we're lost, and were never found.
Your sense of, belonginf, your make-up, scrapes the face as it bleeds
The saints of gray, a reckoning, decisions, to stop, stop running away.
You say there's more to sin, I'll open the door and push you in.
This song will never change, the story of my life is the same.
They say we're lost, and were never found.
Your sense of, belonginf, your make-up, scrapes the face as it bleeds
The saints of gray, a reckoning, decisions, to stop, stop running away
All my life I blame myself, I'll blame you
Your sense of, belonginf, your make-up, scrapes the face as it bleeds
The saints of gray, a reckoning, decisions, to stop, stop running away.
