Neutral Zone

S.P.O.C.K

Another mission is now complete everything seems okay Suddenly an emergency signal not so far awayWithout hesitation we turn around full speed ahead to the source of the sound But the signal is weak and hard to locate maybe we are too lateSearching the area for a while no starship around Sensor readings give us no result nothing at all to be foundWithout any warning the engine breaks down we can't figure out why Maybe this scene is some kind of a trap and we are supposed to die In the Neutral Zone
we are all alone
in the Neutral Zone
We'd better get away there's no reason to stay in the Neutral Zone
Computer screen is now telling us right where we are In a restricted area, on a borderline close to a big, big star
