I Love Girls

Pleasure P

this goes down to my pretty, pretty girls
pretty pretty girls, pretty pretty girls, girls i like a thick girl with a big booty small waist in the face she a cutie i like skinny girls with them A cups long legs with them little bitty buts yeah i like a big girl that can cook like my mama she know the way to a man's heart is through his stomach i like a innocent girl i can turn out i like a freak chick already turned out i like them shy and nerdy, a geek in class college girls straight a's in the classes i like a flirty personality, a little tease, she always making passes i like them 30 or even older cause there ain't nothing like cougar love pretty lady i'm a fool for ya i wrote a song about who i love
i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest, let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest
i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest,
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest i like a rich chick, spoiled and paid i take a broke chick, that i can upgrade i dig a thuged out broad that can dress up quick to fight a nigga every time i mess up you ain't gotta be a model or a perfect 10 you give me a 7,8, or 9 even if you a 5, shawty bring a friend cause 2 5's make a dime every time i love them idependent when they get it on their own a daddy's girl who's still living at home even if she got a couple of kids, that's cool, long as your baby daddy know what it is i like them sexy, naughty, know how to party cause ain't nothing like groupie love little mama i'm a fool for ya

i wrote a song about who i love

i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest,
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest
this goes out to my pretty, pretty girls put your hands up if you a pretty, pretty girl There she go, oho oho, pretty, pretty girls all around the world, my pretty, pretty girls
this goes out to my pretty, pretty girls
? go, oho oho, pretty, pretty girls all around the world, my pretty, pretty girls i wrote a song about who i love, love, i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest,
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest
i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest,
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest
i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest,
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest
i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest, let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest.
