Nickelback

You take away from me that what you just gave
Nothing left to heal, nothing left to save
Given half a chance, given what we've spent
I will not repay, I will not repent
I don't wanna leave, I don't wanna stay
Get away from me, stay the hell away
I will give up my mind
I will give up my way
I will pluck out my eyes
I will feel my way, I will
Is there something wrong with the way I feel?
I don't wanna beg, I don't have to steal
Let me prove myself, let me earn your trust
Then let me betray the way that we discussed
I don't wanna leave, I don't want to stay
Get away from me, stay the hell away
I will give up my mind
I will give up my way
I will pluck out my eyes

I will feel my way, I will
In open hand unopened gift
Uh broken bones, her head won't lift
A decade since, since you've been gone
Mend the crack and say so long
Say so long
Take away from me that what you just gave
Given half a chance, given what we've spent
I will not repay, I will not repent
I will give up my mind
I will give my way
I will pluck out my eyes
I will feel my way, I will
Yea, I will
Yeah, I will
I will
