God Was Created

Vehemence

From beyond the grave to awaken your mind
I must teach you a lesson that I never learned
But without a God, could you carry on?
If the answer is, "No", then just stop right thereI used to hate her Jesus, but Jesus is herGod was created by human minds
Her mind was feeble so she loved God
God was created by human minds
Her God is dead, because she died
God was created by human minds
I fucking hate God, so I hate herWhat I thought to be possession
Of my own mortal shell
Turned out to be my subconscious
Allowing my mind to be trickedGod was created by human minds
A ghost to scare you, make you succumb
God was created by human minds
Pathetic liar, I'm not afraidHer Jesus was not to blame for taking her life
She died by my hand
My hands around her neck
My cock deep in her cuntOpen your mind and understand
Open your mind and understandMy hate comes from my mind, violence in my past
I fixate and connect, obsess and destroy
Her need for a god, created by her past
Fear and ostracization, she wanted it this way
This abuse created demons, one violent one demure
In the name of their God, I denounce the name of ChristI am my own saviorFrom beyond the grave to awaken your mind
I must teach you a lesson that I never learned
But without a God, could you carry on?
If the answer is, "No", then just stop right thereYou are your own God
I am my own God
