Together Forever

Dolly Parton

Together, together
You and I should always stay together
Forever, forever
You and I should always stay togetherThere's nothing we can't do
There's no post we can't get to Nothing we can't get through
Together (Together)
All the mountains, oceans, tides, long as you are by my side
We'll come out alright
Together (Together)Together, together
You and I should always stay together
Forever, forever
You and I should always stay together
Adventures can be fun
As long as there's someone
Besides you that can share in your "whatever"s (whatever)
And even when you stray
You'll always find a way
And that's why you and I must stay togetherTogether, together
You and I should always stay together
Forever, forever
You and I should always stay togetherSo let's be friends for life
Let's see eye to eye
Forever you and I
Together
Together, together
You and I should always stay together
Forever, forever
You and I should always stay together
You and I should always stay together
Don't you think? Let's stay together
