Amazed and Confused

Neil Diamond

Somebody's waitin' on the River Jordan
Somebody's waitin' on the other side
I cast my stones on the way to Heaven
But on the way you know that I will abide
Yes, on the way you know that I will abideYeah, walk that line boy
I'm amazed, I'm confused
I've been dazed, (yeah), I've been usedTake me home to that golden river
Take me back to that other shore
I'll find my way
To that peaceful playground
I know I'll find it
'Cause I've been there before
I know I'll find it
'Cause I've been there beforeSomebody's callin' 'cross the River Jordan
Somebody's callin' from the other side
I cast my stones on the way to Heaven
And on the way you know that I will abide
Yes, on the way you know that I will abide
