Liar

Farewell Milwaukee

You will always be forgotten
When you?re in an empty room
And you will always call me darlin?
When I push you down the stairs
And I have relapses of your memory
The pain is getting awful bad
Cause the money?s in your eyes
The pain is in my tar-stained heart

When I come up to meet you
Don?t believe a word I say
Cause I?ll always be mistaken
And I turn away and lie? Oh, I?ll lie
Honey, I'll lie (x4)

So let?s sit down at the diner
And salute to better days
Cause ?til then the clock is tickin?
Man, this time will drive us insane

When I come up to meet you
Don?t believe a word I say
Cause I?ll always be mistaken now, darlin?
And I turn away and lie? Oh, I?ll lie
Honey, I'll lie (x4)

When I come up to meet you
Don?t believe a word I say
Cause I?ll always be mistaken, baby
And I turn away and lie? Oh, I?ll lie
Honey, I?ll lie (x4)
