

C.L.O.N.E.

The New Cities

Saying goodbye is all we ever do
I'll push rewind just to know you
I'll be gone again in the morning
Guess we'll meet when we're both dreaming I give it my best, you were never impressed
So tell me what's next, so tell me what's next If I could clone myself, I could be somewhere else
I'd be a prodigy in two places
If there were two of me, then I would never leave
Then I could always be in two places I'd never be alone again, never feel like you would end
Never have to tell your friends, I can't take it
If there were two of me then I could always be
In two places Desperate moment, desperate measures
Soul and body, half were severed
I'd do anything, just to fix what
Dark horizon's taken from us
To gather what's left, to give it a rest
So tell me what's next, t-t-t-tell me what's next If I could clone myself, I could be somewhere else
I'd be a prodigy in two places
If there were two of me, then I would never leave
Then I could always be in two places I'd never be alone again, never feel like you would end
Never have to tell your friends, I can't take it
If there were two of me then I could always be
In two places Everybody sees what this is
Here's the story, I can't be in two places If I could clone myself, I could be somewhere else
I'd be a prodigy in two places
If there were two of me, then I would never leave
Then I could always be in two places I'd never be alone again, never feel like you would end
Never have to tell your friends, I can't take it
If there were two of me then I could always be
In two places
