Chewbacca Defence

Darko

Dust creeps of the concrete
A whirlwind of silence and stillness lost
On the footpath never dreaming of waking up
A picture of innocenceThrough the curtains, I see the angle take to the air
But her clipped wings can not support her
A picture of innocenceWe are the broken we are the fallen
Youll never take us alive
Down by the river a shift of a sliver
Your broken never alive
Talk up the rhetoric your guilt is pathetic
Youre broken never a lie
Down by the riverDust creeps off the concrete
A whirlwind of silence and stillness lost
On the footpath forever dreaming of waking up
A picture of innocencePlease wake up
Dont just lie thereWe are the broken we are the fallen
Youll never take us alive
Down by the river a shift of a sliver
Your broken never alive
Talk up the rhetoric your guilt is pathetic
Youre broken never a lie
Down by the river
