Take a Giant Step

James Reyne

It's everywhere outside your window
Just beware, just you chill
Truth laid bare, if this don't get you
Next thing willThe rag and bone man
He's trying to scare you
Drag you down, feeling fine, don't you frown
Waiting at the end of, the end of the lineThe man who waits under your bed
"Meet me tonight", he said
Take a giant step now
Take a giant step nowDust on the Bible
The man who waits behind your door
You can't feel, you can't score
Breathing on his face to make him realThe man who waits under your bed
"Meet me tonight", he said
Take a giant step now
Take a giant step nowThe man who waits under your bed
"Meet me tonight", he said
Take a giant step now
Take a giant step nowUnder, under your bed
Under, under your bedThe man who waits under your bed
"Meet me tonight", he said
Take a giant step now
Take a giant step nowThe man who waits under your bed
"Meet me tonight", he said
Take a giant step now
Take a giant step nowThe man who waits under your bed
The man who waits under your bed
Take a giant step now
Take a giant step now
