Update

Chris Parker

[Verse:]We haven't spoke in six months/
You see me rolling up blunts/
You see this drank in my cup/You think I'm caught in this mess/
Before you judge you should just wish me the best/I know it's all for success/
The people, the liquor, the drugs, the clubs, the money, the drama,
I promise I won't self destruct/
I'll just adjust/I know I'm not like rest/I know myself is to blame/
Just look how far that I've came/You know I'm with so and so who I refuse to name/
I keep them hoes entertained/Not enough beat to explain/You see the squad never changed/
Just a few words been exchanged/
Just a few chicks been exchanged/
Priorities rearranged/Trap niggaz free from them chains/You say these niggaz influenced me/
You swear them bitches have ruined me/
You still upset about you and me/
You went from boo to boo-hoo'ing me/
You see a missed opportunity/Cut the bs like a truancy/
Now when I walk in- no who is he- bitch I'ma God/Aye man- I don't know a man going this hard in my city-now every head nod/Update (repeat x4)
