Scream for You

After Midnight Project

The anger won't leave me
My blood still runs cold
Forget all the glamor
Forget all the goldAre you listening? Do you even care?Am I just a face or someone you trust?
I fire on the mountain, a stranger on the bus
A book without an ending, a rumor we all know
Is trueI'm just a book without an ending
When I cry it means nothing
Well I do, I am
And I scream for youI'm surrounded by the poisons
That feed off of greed
I keep on laughing
You're not taking this from me
I'm book without ending, a rumor we all know
Is trueJust a book without an ending
When I cry it means nothing
Well I do, I am
And I scream for you
When I bleed it means nothing
Well I do, I am
And I scream for youI can't seem to learn
The signs of being
Who I am
So I scream for youI don't know why
I keep missing signs
I'm loosing it
I scream for youWhen I cry it means nothing
Well I do, I am
And I scream for you
When I bleed it means nothing
Well I do, I am
And I scream for you
And I scream for you
And I scream for you
