You All Believe

Danger Radio

Everything you thought you wanted
Everything you thought you'd needCame along, and brought you down
And now youre left alone cryingThey always seem to say the sweetest things
Finally he made it clear
Finally she made a move, focus now
Dont give up hope, theres always something you can do
To make it through, you've got so much to proveFoolish girl dont waste your energy,
Dont waste integrity, hes not worth anything
Foolish boy dont waste your dollar bills
shell be gone by tomorrow,
start up with the sorrowYou all believe, you all believe
That love is gonna save us
But nothing good comes from it trust me
You all believe, you all believe
That love is coming to you
But it's your death, youll finally seePull you up a little higher
Make the fall much more Severe
Now Your waiting at the bottom bleeding
And no one appears to save you cause your fate seems so surreal
So surrealFoolish girl dont waste your energy,
Dont waste integrity, hes not worth anything
Foolish boy dont waste your dollar bills
shell be gone by tomorrow,
start up with the sorrowYou all believe, you all believe
That love is gonna save us
But nothing good comes from it trust me
You all believe, you all believe
That love is coming to you
But it's your death, youll finally seeYou all believe, you all believe
That love is gonna save us
But nothing good comes from it trust me
You all believe, you all believe
That love is coming to you
But it's your death, youll finally seeNow let me tell you a little something about
All my love
Let me tell you a little something about
All my love, let me tell you tell you tell youAll you people giving your selfs up to it
All you people giving into your hearts

All you people giving your selfs up to it
All you people giving into your hearts
Start up with the sorrowYou all believe, you all believe
That love is gonna save us
But nothing good comes from it trust me
You all believe, you all believe
That love is coming to you
But it's your death, youll finally seeYou all believe, you all believe
That love is gonna save us
But nothing good comes from it trust me
You all believe, you all believe
That love is coming to you
But it's your death, youll finally see
