Seconds

Grant Lee Buffalo

I need a second just to catch my breath
I need a second wind to blow my wad
I'll play the second fiddle second best, ohShang lang lang langThat second coming is a second guess
Won't need a second hand there on my watch
My second nature takes a second to kick in ohShang lang lang langShang lang lang lang(Soon very soon)
It's a common sensation
(Soon very soon)I need some second sight to see this through
You know that second rate it just won't do
I'll make a second strike a looking out a second story roomAnd then at second thought I might get bored
Of playing soldier in the Second World War
Second generation from the secondhand storeShang lang lang langShang lang lang langShang lang lang lang(Soon very soon)
It's a common sensation
(Soon very soon)
A like the fate a the nation
(Soon very soon)
Well such a common sensationI need a second just to catch my breath
I need a second wind to blow my wad
I'll play the second fiddle second best, ohShang lang lang langShang lang lang langShang lang lang lang(Soon very soon)
It's a common sensation
(Soon very soon)
A like the fate a the nation
(Soon very soon)
Well such a common sensation
(Soon very soon)
Well like the fate a the nation(Soon very soon)
Such a common sensation
(Soon very soon)
Well like the fate a the nation
(Soon very soon, soon very soon, very soon)
