Ariel

Shemhamforash

Verse 1:
Deep in a bunker underground,
There is a voice that makes no sound.
Invisible wars It's always home,
Silently stirred by a howling storm.Chorus:
Ariel there was a fire in your house they say,
And that your bedroom is all up in flames.
There was a fire in your house they say,
They say you've been dancing with the devil.Verse 2:
You lady are the war of this dream,
I tore the sand into the wind.
Every grain burst into flame,
And the wind blows it back againChorus:
Ariel there was a fire in your house they say,
And that your bedroom is all up in flames.
There was a fire in your house they say,
They say you've been dancing with the devil.Verse 3:
Ariel has disappeared,
How could she be so damn naive (dancing with the devil)
maybe the devil took her...
Or maybe she just choose to leave (dancing with the devil)Chorus:
Ariel there was a fire in your house they say,
And that your bedroom is all up in flames.
There was a fire in your house they say,
They say you've been dancing with the devil.
