Heaven

Before the Dawn

[music: Tuomas Saukkonen, words:Tuomas Saukkonen/Panu Willman]repeating questions to make some sense, fragile words could offer great defence against myself and the creature inside, it's taking me over againthis evil inside me, the cause of my fall is giving nothing and taking all failure in re-creation of heavenand it was all along right before my eyesalready in hell, no reason to die by means of violence I sacrifice my own flesh and blood again for themthis evil inside me, the cause of my fall
failure in re-creation of heaven
