Lazy Days

Chris Andrews

In the lazy days of summer you're making the coastal line.
You'll be spending all your money on lonely chicks and cheap red wine.
Everyone's anonymous until you know the games they play.Na na
back in the lazy days.In the lazy days of summer the sky is ever blue the blue.
And you're walking by the water and all the chicks are wanting you.
You
you made your promises but now you're gonna change your ways.Na
back in the lazy days.
