E Ku'u Morning Dew

Israel Kamakawiwo'ole

E ku'u morning dew, alia mai, alia mai
(my morning dew, wait, wait)
maliu mai 'oe i ka'u a hea nei (heed hither me, to my calling here)
e kali mai 'oe, ia'u nei ia'u nei (wait for me, to me here, to me here)
'o wau iho nÃ´ me ke aloha.
(i am/remain deeply indeed with love)

Wehe mai ke alaula 'oli liko me lÃ®hau (open the joyful, budding light of the early dawn with gentle cool rain)
e ho'ohehelo ana i nei a pÃ¢pÃ¢lina, (become proud of your appearance here and (?) cheeks)
i uka o mana i ka 'iu uhiwai (to the uplands of mana to the heavily misted sacred place)
ma laila no kÃ¢ua e pili mau ai
(there for you and me to join together)
ma laila no kÃ¢ua e pili mau ai.
(there for you and me to join together.)
(e hana hou i ka paukÃ» mua)
(repeat the first verse)
