Growing Up With GNR

Aqueduct

Whenever, whenever, whenever you fall apart forget her, forget her, forget her she broke your heart whenever, whenever, whenever your wrong or right forget her, forget her, forget her, she's torn apartI've been walking these streets tonight just trying to get it right, I've got to get it right whenever you're home you're never really are well I've been living in a fantasy
whenever you're lonely you are not alonewhenever, whenever, whenever you fall apart forget her, forget her, forget her, she's torn aprtO' baby you were looking foxy tonight is it the way you walk or just the way you talk you're playing the part that's gonna break my heart well girl there's something about the way you act you will be crushing my soul and won't be paying me back why can't you be the way you used to be way back when...I was only twelve, damning all to hell, I was feeling fine Hearing Axl Rose, on the radio singing sweet child of minewhenever, whenever, whenever you fall apart forget her, forget her, forget her she broke your heartI was only twelve, damning all to hell, I was feeling fine alright
hearing Axl Rose, on the radio singing sweet child of mine alright welcome to the jungle you're much too much to handle I wish I weren't in love with you
remembering the good times with youI've been living in a fantasy
whenever you're lonely you are not alone
