Storyteller

Lydian Sea

Holding my breath
As I patiently wait
What could come next?
You turned on a light
In my gullible mind
I let you inside
Just like a child
Imagining what could be
I let it run wild
I was naive
It's too good to be true
Still I believed
You told me
What I wanted to hear
Your words paint pictures so sincere
Well, some things
Aren't as they appear
The fantasy is over
Storyteller, storyteller
Telling tales so tall
A witness so false
Storyteller, storyteller
You lead your audience on
For your fiction they fall
Believing the fraud
You're listening to new Innocence lost
I was safe and secure
Now it's all gone
Sorry, I lied
Is that all you can say?
Sorry I tried
I was convinced
By the sweetest of talk
Not to resist
You'll be exposed
By the people you played
Watch it unfold
You told me

What I wanted to hear
Your words paint pictures so sincere
Well, some things
Aren't as they appear
The fantasy is over
Storyteller, storyteller
Telling tales so tall
A witness so false
Storyteller, storyteller
You lead your audience on
For your fiction they fall
Believing the fraud
Believing in you
Believing in everything you told them you could do
You're just a [Incomprehensible]
You'll never be true
Storyteller, you are through
Storyteller, you are through
It was all an act
It was all an act for you
It was all an act, I guess I was a fool
Storyteller, storyteller
Telling tales so tall
A witness so false
Storyteller, storyteller
You lead your audience on
For your fiction they fall
Believing the fraud
Believing in you
Believing in everything you told them you could do
You're just a [Incomprehensible]
You'll never be true
Storyteller, you are through
Storyteller, you are through

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/