Keeping Hope Alive

John Fullbright

Days
Cliches and throw aways
Trying to learn better ways
But it's getting harder to surviveChange
Moments that rearrange
And the only fight that remains
Is called keeping hope alivePain and pride
Tears I've cried aloneEveryday
We go running on a razorblade
Sewing up the edges frayed
Waiting to arriveWhile joy
Is Little Lord Fauntleroy
Sitting in his La-Z-Boy
Keeping hope alivePride and pain
Cloud my brainWait for change
Moments that rearrange
And the biggest fight that reigns
Is called keeping hope alive.
