Bleach

Skrape

In the air my troubles are away
Only if just for this one day
Everyday is an afternoon clowns
Kings and Queens and we all get crownedThe change has fly, leaving you left to tryWalking through dark, she stumbles into the light
Bleaching out the backdrop, her eyes steal the waitShe thinks the worlds so gray
It's right because it's just that way
Life's through backdrops and colossal extremes
Your reactions make me want to, want to screamThe change has fly, leaving you left to tryWalking through dark, she stumbles into the light
Bleaching out the backdrop, her eyes steal the waitYour headaches, get up, get up, goWalking through dark, she stumbles into the light
Bleaching out the backdrop, her eyes steal the wait
You're living alone
