Making People Normal

Bis

Mummy was a model back in 1983
Before the skinny girls invaded the industry
She got a habit, got some plastic much too young
She wants Dustin Hoffman but she's not much on Mrs. RobinsonYou're looking good for your age
Looks like you've stepped off the page
Thanks Ricki, thank you Jenny
You made me normal todayDaddy's such a scruff in his played out teenage gear Hasn't cut his hair and the shampoo's never near Now can you make him look like other's people dad
Will you please help me 'cause it makes my life oh so badI don't look the correct way
Please help make me normal today
I don't look the correct way
Please help make me normal todayThank you Ricki, thank you Jenny

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/