black wings

Inc.

if every life deserves to die in the dirt but covered in white but the dirt dont apologize like her legs when they open wide
like her legs when they open wide
it was black it was never white it was black it was never whiteblack wings on her back for life to her skin with the ink and a knife black wings on her back for life cause if the pain cant make it rightwe were never blind to it we were never blind to it
we were never blind to itevery dog deserves a fight but the mouth never got a bite the birth didnt make a life to the birth i apologize to dirt i apologize
it was black it was never white
to her skin with the ink and a knife
cause if the pain cant make it rightbut it was never to be said
it was never to be said
