Flutter And Wow

Elvis Costello

Last rays of sunlight die
Full moon begins to rise
Reflected in your eyesI can't believe that this is happening
You make the motor in me
Flutter and wowThe crowd was gathering
The clock struck five, then ten
My happy tears were descendingI can't believe that this is happening
You make the motor in me
Flutter and wowFlutter and wow
Flutter and wow
You make the motor in me
Flutter and wow
Flutter and howThe incident tape across the bed
Threading it from the needle to the head
I'm planting this thought in a magnetic field
And pushing the button and all of a suddenErase everything rotten
Fascinated and uptight
Make me shout out loud
Make me cry all day and nightMy voice got stuck in my throat
Pulled my hand up into the sleeve of my coat
So you'd never know how it was shakingI can't believe that this is happening
You make the motor in me
Flutter and wowFlutter and wow
Flutter and wow
You make the motor in me
Start up and stop againWhen I am spluttering
You make the motor in me
Flutter and wow
Flutter and howFlutter and wow
Flutter and how
To the bridgeThe incident tape across the bed
Threading it to the needle to the head
I'm planting the thought in a magnetic field
And pressing the button and all of a suddenErase everything rotten
Fascinated and uptight
Make me shout out loud
Make me cry all day and night
