Downfall

Noveria

Weakness reeking out your core
I can smell your corruption
Sickness I cannot take no more
You're infecting my conscienceI'm watching breathless
The sky turning blood red
Over the fireGoing down I am falling
Through the blackening night of my dying dreams
The sirens are calling
I will bring you down with meSleepless as none of yours return
Shouting words they'll never heed
Speechless as the other voice returns
You're the blasphemous remains of a dying breedNo more
No one could stand my Sickness
Reverie
No more
No one could knowYou'll feel no more
You'll hurt no more
You'll feel no more
