

Dear Sons

Hosier

My sons, they always the greatest.

Listen up n pay attention.

Donâ€™t listen to what the 'nay sayers' say.

And keep ya ten toes down and ya eyes pointed straight.

Never be afraid to take risks or make a mistake.

You only live once.

When I was young, donâ€™t make the choices I made.

I never took life serious til the time that they gave.

They brought ya to see me

I told myself that very day.

Never again would I ever see that look on ya face.

What kinda example am I setting when I'm locked n a cage?

Not one. Excuses, I've got none.

I own mine.

Ya gonna hear alot of stories,

Some true, but most lies.

But thats beside the fact.

Lets get back to life facts.

Because thats what this is all about.

Iâ€™m trynna get ya hip Jack.

Never gonna steer ya wrong and lead ya down the wrong road.

As long as im alive,

Know yu always got a home.

Always work ya hardest

If its given then you know its wrong.

Ill make sure ya taken care of

When I'm out here dead and gone.

Dear sonâ€™s,

When yu get older

, Yu gonna hear alot of things.

Promise me this one thing:

You'll let me explain.

Every choice I made in life,

It wasnt the greatest.

But ima love you til my grave stands strong.

My sonâ€™s are always the greatest.

I hope your pickin up what im lay in down

Cause these are all lifes facts

And all the knowledge that I'm droppin will keep ya life on track.

Always keep it moving forward,

No time for lookin back.

Rise n grind will make ya shine.

Always know i got ya back.

Over come your tribulations

No such thing as hesitation.

Always keep ya eyes on the prize

N over look the hatin.

Anything in life is possible

Just keep determination.

No time for procrastinating.

If yu want it go n get it.

Iâ€™m raising go getters

Success is the only option.

I'll never raise ya as quitters

Theres no such thing as stoppin.

Live ya life to the fullest

Cause itll b gone n a blink

And never worry bout possibly what the next man thinks.

Always b you

And stay true to what yur gut says

And dont forget ya pants go on the same and yu bleed red.

Stay focused, work hard

And never be afraid of thing

And always give it yur all,

Accept what life will bring ya.

Dear son's: when yu get older,

Yu gonna hear alot of things.

Promise me this one thing:

Youâ€™ll let me explain.

Every choice I made in life, it wasnt the greatest.

Ima love yu til my grave stands strong.

My sons they always the greatest.
