December Sadness

Project Pitchfork

Thick clouds over the town, she is alone in her room,
icy wind in the streets,
snow falls,
she is alone in her room,
surrenders to december sadness,
no light in this room,
blue painted walls - black curtains,
night all the time,
she is waiting night and day,
she is waiting for you,
candles are burning,
tears are falling,
ice on the window,
she is waiting,
a glass of red wine,
snow is still falling,
she remains in december sadness.
No light in this room,
blue painted walls - black curtains,
night all the time,
she is waiting night and day,
she is waiting for you,
she remains in december sadness.
