Turn Me On

Luke McMaster

You can't stop the rain
Falling down from the sky
Can't stop the seasons
Or the feelings when you're touching me tonight
So committed, electric, keep it coming in waves
One thing leads into another everything can change
Let it happen naturallyI love the way your spark turns into a flame
Turns into a fire burning endlessly
I love the way the winter turns into spring
Turns into the summer, lover, lover
I love the way you turn me on
I love the way you turn me on
Turn me on baby
Can stop the moon cashing after the sun
You can't stop boys from cashing girls
From making boys go crazy one by one
It's a chain reaction, attraction
It happens every night and day
One thing leads into another everything can change
Let it happen naturally
I love the way your spark turns into a flame
Turns into a fire burning endlessly
I love the way the winter turns into spring
Turns into the summer, lover, lover
I love the way you turn me on
I love the way you turn me on
Turn me on baby
