In the End

Skrape

Don't you cut me down
Unsaid noise I've found
You said you'd be cruel
Our conversation hurt youAs you speak, its obvious
But in the end, its all wordsSpeak the way you feel
But spoken words don't heal
You cant change this now
I've learned that this is howAs you speak, its obvious
But in the end, its all wordsWe fall apart, we all fall apart
You fall apart, we all fall apartI cant see the obvious
'Cause in the end, you know its all your turn
And nothing heals the words we live
But actions speak louder then words
