Gone to Texas

Terry Allen

Hey I don't need no chicken shit
Business man tellin' me what to do
Even if you ain't got no business
Same thing goes for youI don't need no sweet faced woman
Goin' sour mouthed on me
If I work like a dog night an' day
To give her a hundred time more than she needsGone to Texas baby
Gone to Texas tonight
Gone to Texas baby
All I need is the rideYou say it ain't no different any other place to go
Well you ain't been with me or you don't really know
It's just the feel of the deal from behind the wheel
That'll make me need to goWell I don't need no stinky pinky
Sing to me about the common man
Some cowboy fake who think all it takes
Is a hat on his head and a Grammy in his handAn' I don't need no weekend warrior
Out there protectin' me
If he's dumb with a gun as he is with his tongue
When he's shootin' off on TVGone to Texas baby
Gone to Texas tonight
Gone to Texas baby
All I need is the rideYou say it ain't no different any other place to go
Well you must be a Yankee or your just kinda slow
'Cause it's just the feel of the deal from behind the wheel
Makes you need these Texas roadsWell I don't need no dime a dozen
Ah New Age way to live
An' I don't need no two bit preacher
Condemn me because I don't give him my Money, money, money, money, money, money, moneyI don't need no Soldier Boy
Fightin' no war for me
You can burn the flag an' melt the statue
Gonna live my liberties'Cause I'm gone to Texas baby
Might go straight on to the moon
Gone to Texas baby
Can't get enough too soonSay Texas ain't no different
Goin' straight to Hell can be
Hey you must be a critic
Are you too blind to see?It's just the feel of the deal from behind the wheel
Gonna heel the hell out of meGone to Texas baby

Gone to Texas tonight
Gone to Texas baby
All I need is the rideGone to Texas
All I need is the ride
Gone to Texas
All I need is the rideGone to Texas
All I need is the ride
Gone to Texas
All I need is the rideGone to Texas
All I need is the ride
Gone to Texas
All I need is the rideGone to Texas
All I need is the ride
