Loves Glory

Patti Scialfa

Oh baby tell me stories
About those pretty worlds
Who will deliver us from blame
Who will walk free
Who will walk in chains
And when the sky is falling
What do we believe in
When everything
We learned to trust
Turns around
And makes a fool of usWell baby
I'll believe
In all of loves glory
So don't you try
And talk me down
I'm not afraid to stumble
Baby I can fallOh my tender dreams
I gave them such fragile wings
And I sent them up to heaven
But heaven was just too high
And I watched them
Falter against the skyBut baby I still believe
In all of loves glory
I gave that promise to the rain
I'm not afraid to stumble
Baby I can fallOh, I could I'd play out my part
I'd cup my hands and
I'd collect the rain
That falls inside your heart
But I can't stop the rain
I can't hold back the thunder
Oh but I can make one vow
And promise you
My heart right now'Cause baby I believe
In all of loves glory
And no one's gonna talk me down
I'm not afraid to stumble
Baby I can fall
I'm not afraid to stumble

Baby I can fall
I'm not afraid to stumble
Baby I can fall
