

Invaders

Roswell Invaders - Invaders

Verse 1:

It was in the evening, or was it afternoon
It doesn't really matter, they were in my room
No there no here to save youx3

No there not

Chorus:

One by one

They tricked me one by one
They stripped me one by one
They fixed me one by one
Invaders picked me

Verse 2:

I thought that I should go now but I just had to stay
Stick around and listen to what they had to say
No we're not going to hurt you

x3

No we're not

Chorus

Change:

Ohhhh, arrggghhh, oohhh

Invaders, Invaders, Invaders, Invaders.....

Ooh, I like their eyes, like buggy flies

Their purple skies, where no one dies,

Their silken hair, and what they wear

Without a care for nothing

Say that you care but you fucking don't

And you say that you care but you fucking don't

And you say that you care but you fucking don't

And you say that you care but you fucking don't

Bah, bah, bah, bah, bah, bah, bah, bah, bah..... etc.

Backing: Watch out for invaders...
