A Dance In the Mire

The Worn Flints

Oooh I've been down this road before
Oooh yet I'll take it just once more

And as the silence breaks
I can almost hear the winds turn
But if it kills me this time
At least I know I'll have the last word

Oooh dear god don't let me slip away
Oooh but if I do don't let me stay

As the silence breaks
I can almost hear the winds turn
But if it kills me this time
At least I'll know I had the last word
