Ambience

Climax 69

Legacy will never burn
Hard to breathe, I'll never learn
And it moves me towards
Where I want to leave
In the silence we all speak
Layin' down and sufferin'
And I move nothin'
And embrace what I don't need
So I stand, all alone
With your trance, on my own
Will I just sustain movin' on in vain
'Cause this glow, you and I
Have come to know, is a lie
And we must move on
I can see past these fine lines that you stepped through
I can see through these glass eyes that led me on
I'm in this room, you're in that and you play
Hearts like instruments
I can see past these fine lines that you stepped through
I can see through these glass eyes that led me on
I'm in this room, you're in that and you play
Hearts like instruments
Listen deep, you'll hear that sound
Whisperin', it's all around
Echoes graspin' in, echoes lastin' sin
Out of this, please open up
Move from this, it's taken us
And I need to change, and I need to say
So I stand, all alone
With your trance, on my own
Will I just sustain, movin' on in vain?
'Cause this glow, you and I
Have come to know, is a lie
And we must move on
I can see past these fine lines that you stepped through

I can see through these glass eyes that led me on
I'm in this room you're in that and you play
Hearts like instruments

I can see past these fine lines that you stepped through
I can see through these glass eyes that led me on
I'm in this room you're in that and you play
Hearts like instruments
I can see past these fine lines that you stepped through
I can see through these glass eyes that led me on
Tell me the things that I need to keep my heart
From breaking clean
Leave me with numbness and watch me lock
Myself in disbelief
Where does this movement come from
I'm holding on so desperately?
This love is so intricate I feel it taking
I can see past these fine lines that you stepped through
I can see through these glass eyes that led me on
I'm in this room you're in that and you play
Hearts like instruments
I can see past these fine lines that you stepped through
I can see through these glass eyes that led me on
I'm in this room you're in that and you play
Hearts like instruments
I can see past these fine lines that you stepped through
I can see through these glass eyes that led me on
I'm in this room you're in that and you play
Hearts like instruments
I can see past these fine lines that you stepped through
I can see through these glass eyes that led me on
I'm in this room you're in that and you play
Hearts like instruments
